EVERETT (February 2, 2024) – Comedian Nate Bargatze performed for two SOLD-OUT crowds at Angel Of The Winds Arena in Everett, WA this past weekend; breaking a venue record for the highest number of single day tickets sold.

On Saturday, January 27, 2024, Bargatze broke the attendance record at Angel Of The Winds Arena in Everett with 19,003 tickets sold – the highest amount ever sold by a performer at the venue. On Bargatze's first Arena Tour and Arena stop in the Greater Seattle area, after selling out the initial 7:00 PM show, a second 3:00 PM show was added due to popular demand.

Corey Margolis, OVG360's General Manager at Angel Of The Winds Arena shared, "What an incredible accomplishment! Our team is so happy to have been a part of Nate's entry into mega stardom. The community came out in force, and we are honored to have had the chance to collaborate with Nate and his team to set this record that will be very hard to beat!"

This past weekend, Angel Of The Winds Arena hosted attendees for four Arena events in three days, with X-Treme International Ice Racing on Friday, back to back SOLD OUT Nate Bargatze shows on Saturday, and the Harlem Globetrotters closing the weekend on Sunday.

2023 finished as the highest event income year in the facility's 20-year history. With the record sales of the two Nate Bargatze shows, a full lineup of other concerts, Silvertips hockey and other events, 2024 looks set to be a dynamic year of sports and entertainment.
